

Find the Queen Bee

Honeybees live in a colony with different roles of bees having unique tasks. There are workers, drones, and a queen. Each colony only has one queen, who has all of the babies. Her body is much longer and her wings don't cover her whole abdomen.

Identify all the drones and worker bees below my colouring them yellow. Highlight the one queen by colouring her in a different colour.

