

Spring Birds

Spring migration starts in early-March and ends in late-May. Our gardens and nature sanctuaries are a popular stopover for many species. You may find some new birds popping up with the year-round residents in your local park or along our trails.

Spring Birds

You can attract these birds to your garden or backyard by planting native species and offering food and water. For hints, see our blog post at: www.rbg.ca/blog.

