EXPLORE NATURE

Nestled in the heart of Ontario and sprawling across 2,137 acres, RBG is a living paradise that seamlessly merges beauty and education. With its captivating and diverse plant collection, coupled with a dedicated commitment to environmental conservation, the Royal Botanical Gardens stands as a beacon for environmental stewardship.

Explore RBG today with 1 to 1.5 hour guided tours led by our knowledgeable team of volunteers. Discover the rich history, intricate gardens, and scenic trails that make RBG so special.

OUR GROUP TOURS

ROSE GARDEN (HENDRIE PARK)

1 to 1.5 Hour Tour. Late June to September

Located in Hendrie Park, the rejuvenated rose garden is an innovative, sustainable, and inspiring experience, the quintessential rose garden for Canada's largest botanical garden. The rose garden features a spectacular display of roses and companion plants intended to extend seasonal interest.

ROCK GARDEN

1-Hour Tour. Open Year Round

Opened to visitors in 1932, the historic Rock Garden is considered the birthplace of Royal Botanical Gardens. Following a significant rejuvenation, the David Braley and Nancy Gordon Rock Garden reopened in 2016 to embrace sustainable trends in garden design and management while respecting the integrity of its heritage setting. Bold swaths of brilliant perennials provide sweeps of inspiring colour and texture throughout all seasons.
