

Garden Music Nights summer concert series returns to Royal Botanical Gardens

Burlington ON, July 2, 2019 – Royal Botanical Garden’s summer concert series returns to the beauty of Hendrie Park this July! Visitors can tap their feet to country and roots music every Tuesday from July 2 to August 20, and enjoy red hot jazz and cool blues every Wednesday from June 3 to August 28 Performances run from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Wednesday night jazz and blues performers will include Bywater Call, MonkeyJunk and Spencer Mackenzie, while Tuesday’s Country and Roots lineup features the talents of Redhill Valleys, Madison Violet, and Buck Twenty.

Dinner and refreshments will be available from RBG’s catering service on both performance nights and intermission garden tours are being offered by education interpreters. Outside food or drink will not be permitted in Hendrie Park.

Tickets are available at RBG Centre on the day of the concert, at the Hendrie Park kiosk, or in advance online. Regular admission applies for non-members. Admission is free to RBG members. The show will go on, rain or shine.

-30-

For full artist bios and more information, visit www.rbg.ca/musicnights. For media access, contact:

Nick Kondrat
Manager, Communications
Royal Botanical Gardens
905-527-1158 ext. 223
nkondrat@rbg.ca

2019 Garden Music Nights lineup

Wednesdays: Red Hot Jazz and Cool Blues

July 3	Miss Emily
July 10	Faith Amour
July 17	Bywater Call
July 24	Kristen Violet May
July 31	Avery Raquel
August 7	MonkeyJunk
August 14	Spencer Mackenzie
August 21	Denielle Bassels
August 28	Angelique Francis

Tuesdays: Country and Roots

July 2	COIG
July 9	Red Hill Valleys
July 16	Madison Violet
July 23	Karli June
July 30	Buck Twenty
August 6	Genevieve Fisher
August 13	JP Cormier
August 20	Alessia Cohle