Royal Botanical Gardens hosts 4th Annual Tea Festival

Burlington ON, November 7, 2019 - Tea lovers will sip to their heart's content at Royal Botanical Gardens this weekend with the return of the 4th annual Tea Festival to RBG Centre. The two-day celebration of one of the world's most celebrated beverages includes live entertainment and explores tea's cultural origins with a traditional tea ceremony.

Visitors can discover new favourites while sampling teas from around the world, then learn about tea culture, history, and taste with educational presentations from special guests. Over 20 vendors will offer unique tea products, ideal for holiday gifts.

WHAT: RBG Tea Festival

WHEN: Saturday November 9 and Sunday November 10, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WHERE: Royal Botanical Gardens, 680 Plains Road W. Burlington ON
